Serve flank end last if additional servings are needed. A board, to fit the platter, protects cutting edge of the knife.

Ritzy Raisin Pie

Another fine pie made with pure lard.

1 cup seedless raisins or chopped prunes	$\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon nutmeg
1 egg	$\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon salt

Moon Glow Frosting

|---------------------|---------------------------|
| 4 cups sugar | 2 teaspoons baking powder |
| 2 teaspoons vinegar | 2 teaspoons orange juice |
| 1 cup hot water | 2 tablespoons lemon juice |
| ¼ cup butter | 2 teaspoons grated orange |

Combine sugar, vinegar, water and butter. Bring to a boil, cover and cook for 3 minutes. Continue cooking without stirring until sirup spins a thread 10 to 12 inches long. The thermometer will read 248° F. Beat the egg yolks until thick and lemon colored. Pour one half of the cooked sirup in a fine stream over the egg yolks, beating constantly. Return balance of sirup to range, bring to a boil and then add to egg yolk mixture, beating vigorously. Add the baking powder, orange juice, lemon juice and orange rind. Continue beating until mixture is creamy.

This frosting can be cooled and stored in the refrigerator until needed. The frosting may be thinned, if necessary, by adding fruit juice, milk or cream.

Recipes in this booklet, except those made with cake flour were developed using all-purpose flour. This type of flour is milled so it may be used satisfactorily for all kinds of cooking and baking. Since flours may vary slightly in different areas (both in moisture content and texture) some homemakers may need to make minor adjustments in the amount of liquid used in the recipes calling for all-purpose flour. Add the recommended amount of liquid slowly since soft wheat flour does not require as much liquid.

For double crust pie, roll other half of pastry, making several gashes to allow for escape of steam. Place over filling and cut $\frac{1}{2}$ inch smaller than lower crust. Fold lower crust over top crust. Crimp edges. Bake according to pie recipe.

For baking pie shell, crimp edge of pastry. Prick pastry with a fork before baking. Bake in hot oven (450° F.) 8 to 10 minutes.
